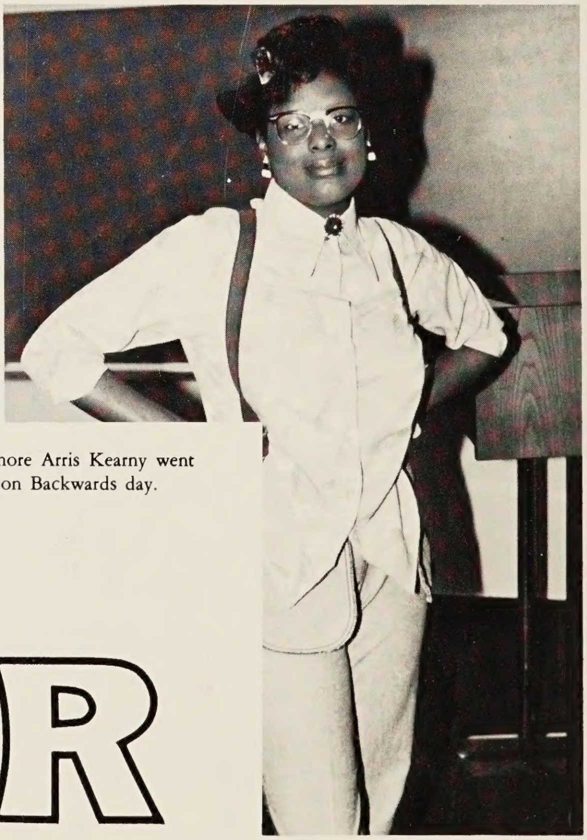
"THE MUSTANG"

MANOR STUDENT SHOW THEIR

Leteshia Spenser and William Harding are nerds for a day.

Twana Felton holds the crowned jewels.

Manor students showed their "wildside" on Spirit Week by dressing up as the appropriate characters for that day. Spirit week consisted of: Monday — no school, Tuesday — 50's and 60's day, Wednesday — nerd and backwards day, Thursday — costume day, and Friday — school colors day. Some students showed their spirit by being in the Homecoming Court, Parade, and some went over to the visitors side to out cheer the Brave cheerleaders. To bad Braves, Manor lives on.



Sophomore Arris Kearny went all out on Backwards day.

Kim Ellis flashes a smile as she gets set to perform.

Nicole Fisher leads the Mustang Majorettes.

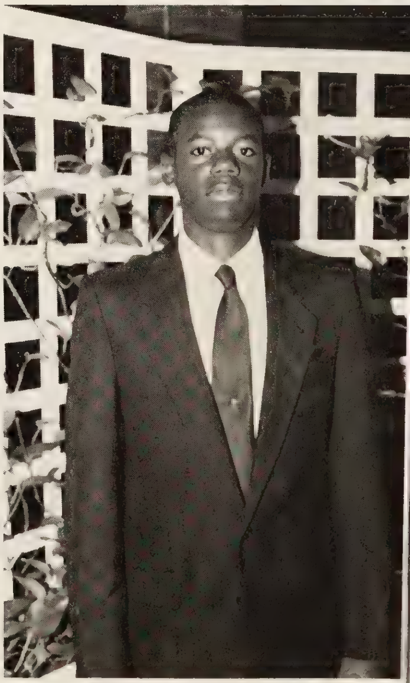
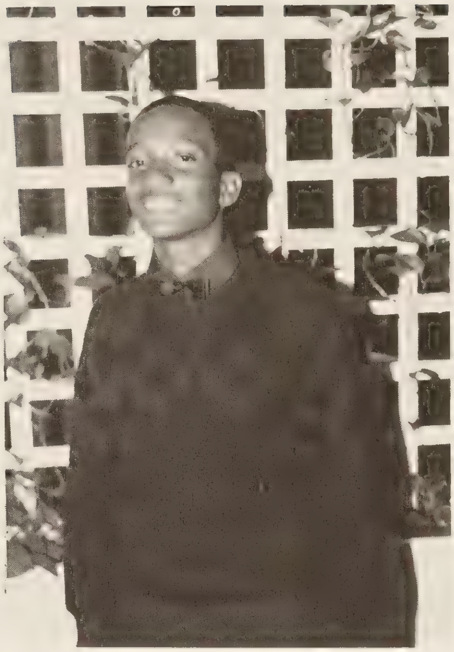
Carla Johnson, a first year band student, alternates in carrying the banner and the American Flag.





The 87-88 Homecoming was a great success as always. Our famous Manor Mustangs beat the Indian River Braves 21 to 11.

Everybody was in suspense all week to know the Queen and King. It seems that the best is always saved for last. Homecoming Queen was Cindy Long and the King was Charles Jackson. As usual it was another victory for the Mustang Pride.

Mustang!

For the Homecoming "87-88" the Mustangs strutted their stuff in front of Indian River. The floats competing in the contest were the Pep Club, the Art Club, Juniors, Seniors, cheerleaders, and the Spanish Club. The winning float was "The Money Machine" by the Art Club. The 2nd place float was "Cantia Mexicana" by the Spanish Club. And the 3rd place float was the Junior class float. The winner of the game was — who else? The Manor Mustangs, 21-11.

This is "The Money Machine" put together with color covered with money and constructed by the art club.

The Junior class "Gambled on the Mustangs."

Tonya Patterson, Nisha, and Lirinzo fire up the fondue.

Your Fancy

Mrs. Kirman, our new Principal, samples the class' brownies.

Nisha helps some members of the Honor Society.

Manor's Home Economics department offers a two hour catering course. It can be substituted as a third math credit, which is necessary for graduation. The catering class gives Seniors and some Juniors the chance to learn how a caterer works. Mrs. Brinkley and Mrs. Knight take their students on field trips to cooking schools to actually see how a professional caterer works. Students learn how to plan, prepare, and serve meals correctly.

During the year the class will prepare cakes, pies, breads, vegetables and meats, which they will sell all year round. One popular event is the sale of Valentine cookies, which many students in the school buy. The students come into the program with no experience and as they learn more their sales lists get longer. The highlight of the year though, is when one half of the class plans, prepares, and serves an elegant formal dinner for the other half of the class, they then reverse roles. An important part of the curriculum is the exposure to career opportunities, and job placement after graduation. Overall the future caterers will agree it's a good experience for them.

NEVER TO BE FORGOTTEN

In loving memory of our beloved son and brother, who is gone but will never be forgotten, although your days here were few, you gave so much to those around you. We miss you and you will remain in our hearts forever, and ever.
Loving You Always
Mom, Dad, Robbie and Kevin

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU FRIENDS

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please go on bravely with a gallant smile
And For my sake and in my name, Live on and do all things the same —
Spend not your life in empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways —
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer, And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.

Hurdle Up Lisa

Lisa Harding has plenty to smile about but she really does. But Lisa's lack of smiles may come from her years of wearing braces and not feeling really comfortable without them yet. Most girls would be proud to finish second to or very close behind one of the top hurdlers in the nation, Lisa Wells her teammate and close friend, who wouldn't smile about running a leg of a state championship mile relay team. They ride to school together in the morning, stroll the halls together at school, take public speaking and other class together and can be seen laughing uncontrollably together over a joke.

Do You Remember . . .

It was discovered that P.T.L.'s Jim Bakker paid $25,000 in hush money to church secretary Jessica Hahn. This was to keep her quiet about a sexual encounter in a motel room in 1980 Tammy Bakker was compared to Imelda Marcos with her extreme makeup and outlandish spending, using church funds and her drug addiction Oral Roberts, said God told him he would "call him home" if he did not raise $8 million in one month Jimmy Swaggart, who spilled the beans on the Bakkers was photographed entering a motel room with a prostitute. He then made a dramatic confession sermon on t.v., in which he never mentioned what the sin was The 1988 Presidential campaign which included two Reverends, Pat Robertson and the only black candidate, Jesse Jackson Gary Hart was at the front until photos surfaced of him and actress/model Donna Rice, he then withdrew from the campaign Ollie North became a national hero when he and Admiral Poindexter sold arms to Iran in exchange for hostages, then using the money for the Nicaraguan Contras, North told us "the good, the bad, and the ugly" at the senate hearings where he admitted to shredding stacks of documents. North and Reagan were big supporters of Nicaragua's freedom fighters. Ronald Reagan got alot of criticism during this, his last year of Presidency, not only for the Iran-Contra affair but for his supreme court nomination of Judge Robert Bork. Bork had very controversial ideas. Then it was Douglas Ginsberg, his second choice, we found out that he had smoked marijuana as recently a few years before Ronald Reagan and Gorbachev signed the INF Peace Treaty to get rid of all intermediate range nuclear missles The bombing of Kuwait's oil tankers led to the deployment of the Atlantic Fleet in the Persian Gulf and Kuwait's tankers flying the U.S. flag. The Navy was also mine sweeping in the Persian Gulf Jessica McClure the 2 year old who was trapped in a well was on the nation's mind for the two days it took to rescue her The Aids epidemic put fear in the nation as some of the most famous people died from it, last year actor Rock Hudson and this year pianist Libarace. In the Midwest, Christmas Eve, R. Jean Simmons murdered 13 people most of whom were members of his own family Heather O'Rourke, the little girl in the movie Poltergiest, who said "they're here", died at the age of twelve Virginia lawmakers passed the seatbelt law Portsmouth's 1st black Mayor, James Holley was removed from office by recall election after his finger prints were found on hate mail sent to city council concerning the Manor-Norcom issue But Manor High remained Manor and Norcom remained Norcom Ms. Kirman, our new principal came in and laid down the law. New rules were every where no going to your lockers during school, stricter tardy policy, and Saturday dentention A local disc jokey fuels racial tension at Bayside Junior High in Virginia Beach The blockbuster movies were Fatal Attraction, Dirty Dancing, School Daze and movies such as Platoon and Hamburger Hill dealt with the dramatic side of the Vietnam War Era The Class of "88" Graduated, Congratulations and Good Luck to everybody!
